

Rajendra Institute of Medical Sciences (RIMS), Ranchi
(An Autonomous Institute under the Govt. of Jharkhand)

1st Workshop on Research Methodology-2019
18th-19th January 2019

Participants

Faculties/Post graduates from medical and allied disciplines.

Workshop overview

This workshop applies problem solving technique which would include lecture and group sessions. The focus would be to undertake epidemiological research and community based setting which includes planning, data collection, data analysis, report writing and publication. Interactive learning sessions would focus on how to do including hands training to use statistical software. The batch will have 45-50 participants registered on first come basis.

Course Contents

- Role, importance, principles, practice of research & epidemiology
- Measurement of health outcomes
- Study designs
- Computer in Research
- Principles and use of biostatistics
- Ethical issues in conducting research
- Analyzing ,interpreting and disseminating scientific information

Course fees: Rs.1000/

Last date of Registration: 10-01-2019

Course fee covers the cost of resource materials, certificate of participation as well as lunch and refreshments served during workshop.

For details contact

Workshop Coordinator:

Dr. S. B. Singh,

Associate Professor cum Statistician,

Dept. of PSM, RIMS, Ranchi-834009

Email:sbsingh2011@yahoo.com, Mobile: 9905100932(WhatsApp)